

4.02 Meaning of screened air service

- (1) An aircraft that is operating an international air service that is a regular public transport operation or an open charter operation, or a jet aircraft operating a domestic air service that is a regular public transport operation, must be a cleared aircraft before departure.
- (2) An aircraft not covered by subregulation (1) that departs from the same airport apron as an aircraft described in that subregulation, and is scheduled to depart within the operational period of the latter aircraft, must be a cleared aircraft.
- (3) For subregulation (2):
apron has, for an airport, the meaning given by the airport operator's TSP.
- (4) An aircraft described in subregulation (1) or (2) operates a screened air service.

regular public transport operation means an operation of an aircraft for the purposes of the carriage of people, or both people and goods, of an air service that:

- (a) is provided for a fee payable by persons using the service; and
- (b) is available to the general public on a regular basis; and
- (c) is conducted in accordance with fixed schedules to or from fixed terminals over specific routes.

charter operation means an operation of an aircraft for the purpose of:

- (a) a service of providing air transportation of people, or both people and goods, that:
 - (i) is provided for a fee payable by persons using the service; and
 - (ii) is not available to the general public; whether or not the service is conducted in accordance with fixed schedules to or from fixed terminals over specific routes; or
- (b) a service of providing air transportation of people, or both people and goods, that:
 - (i) is provided for a fee payable by persons using the service; and
 - (ii) is available to the general public; and
 - (iii) is not conducted in accordance with fixed schedules to or from fixed terminals over specific routes; or
- (c) a service of providing air transportation of people, or both people and goods, that:
 - (i) is not provided for a fee payable by persons using the service; and
 - (ii) is not available to the general public; and
 - (iii) is conducted in accordance with fixed schedules to or from fixed terminals over specific routes.

open charter operation means a charter operation of the kind described in paragraph (b) of the definition of charter operation.
